Australian Documentary

Bloodlines: Meeting and process of catharsis of two women, Ruth Rich, daughter of Holocaust victims and Bettina Goring, grand niece of Nazi war criminal, Hermann Goring.

A moving meditation on guilt and reconciliation, this 52 minute documentary film explores the unwritten cost of war and genocide on future generations – of both victims and perpetrators. Bettina Goering, descendent of Nazi war criminal Herman Goering, comes to Australia to meet Ruth Rich, artist and the daughter of Holocaust survivors. With astonishing honesty and courage, both women attempt to reconcile the traumas in their bloodlines.
